

Do You Ever Wonder?

Do you ever wonder
Why a rainbow only glows
In the daytime, over yonder,
When you have a stuffy nose?

Do you ever wonder
Why the car is always hot
On the day that you buy ice cream
Then it melts and makes a spot?

Do you ever wonder
Why your shoestring gets untied
When your Mom is in a hurry
And your puppy wants to hide?

I think that it's a puzzle.
I may never have a clue.
But I like that I can wonder.
Do you wonder 'bout things too?
